

CPT-2750 HTML5 and CSS3 Lab 1 Chapters 1-4

Name: _____

Create a folder and call it Lab1-(your last name). For example, mine would be LAB1-Miller. You will need to download the picture for the lab from Canvas to your LAB1 folder. (1 point)

Your customer is the Barons Ice Hockey Team. Your assignment is the following:

1. Start a new document in your text editor (Sublime Text)	1/2 point
2. On the first line type the one-sided tag that creates an element known as the DOCTYPE declaration, which lets user agents know that the document contents are written in HTML5.	1/2 point
3. Starting on the second line, set up your html, head, and body opening and closing tags.	1/2 point
4. Insert a blank line before the closing body tag; insert a paragraph element containing your first and last name.	1/2 point
5. Click between the opening and closing head tags and type <code><meta charset="utf-8" /></code>	1/2 point
6. Continuing in the head tag, create a title tag and key in your name followed by LAB1 .	1/2 point
7. Inside the body tags, create div tags with an id of "box".	1/2 point
8. In the body/div, type the heading, Barons Ice Hockey (h1).	1/2 point
9. After the heading, type the paragraph and contact information as typed below: The Barons ice hockey team is the ice hockey team that represents Rhodes State College in Lima, Ohio. The school's team competes in the Western Collegiate Hockey association. The Barons last played in the NCAA Men's Division I Ice Hockey Tournament in 2013. The Barons have won one NCAA Division 1 championship, coming in 2011 defeating the Minnesota-Duluth Bulldogs in the longest championship game in the tournament's history. The current men's head coach is former Miami Red Hawks player and assistant coach, Joe Smith. Joe Smith, Coach, 4240 Campus Drive, Lima, OH 45804, 419-995-8140	1/2 point
10. Save your document as index.html in your lab folder.	1/2 point
